Message from Director of Learning – KS5

Dear Parents

“Future generations will be living in a world that is very different from one which we are accustomed to. It is essential that we prepare ourselves and our children for that world” – Sheikh Zayed Al Nahyan. This quote by Sheikh Zayed tells us the importance given to children in the UAE.

Emirati Children's Day is observed on 15th March each year, in recognition of the milestone date of the law (Wadeema law) was approved to safeguard young members of our society from all forms of abuse.

Children's Day aims to raise awareness on children's rights and welfare among the general public, so children are healthy, safe and live in a supportive environment for their development.

As parents, we want the best for our children, we must ensure we keep no stone unturned to achieve this. Research shows that children who are happier are more likely to turn into successful, accomplished adults.

Let us look at some ways to ensure that our children are happy now and grow up to be happy adults.

Teach them to build relationships

It doesn't take a lot. It can start with encouraging children to perform small acts of kindness to build empathy.

Expect effort, not perfection

Parents who over emphasise achievement are more likely to have children with high levels of depression and anxiety compared to other children.

More Playtime

We read a lot about mindfulness and meditation these days — and both are quite powerful. But simple playing is very important for a child's development. This year the Emirati children's day is celebrated under the theme of 'the right to play'. This is to educate members of the community on the importance of play for children.

Get Happy Yourself

The step to happier children is, also ironically, a little bit selfish. How happy parents are affects how happy and successful your children are — dramatically.

Eat Dinner Together

Sometimes all science does is validate those things our grandparents knew all along. Yes, family dinner matters. This simple tradition helps mold better children and makes them happier too. Often, we are more open to new methods when it comes to work and careers, but ignore it when it comes to our family. That is a mistake. Family and children are a very important part of our existence.

I would like to leave you with an interesting quote by Harold Lee - The most important work you and I will ever do will be within the walls of our own homes.

Warm Regards

Beena Nair

Mother's Day

Mother's Day is a celebration honouring the mother of the family, as well as motherhood, maternal bonds, and the influence of mothers in society. It is celebrated on various days in many parts of the world, most commonly in the months of March or May. It complements similar celebrations honoring family members, such as Father's Day, Siblings Day, and Grandparents Day.

The modern Mother's Day began in the United States, at the initiative of Anna Jarvis in the early 20th century. It is not directly related to the many traditional celebrations of mothers and motherhood that have existed throughout the world over thousands of years.

Save on your school's fees today! GEMS Ambassador Programme

Dear Parent,

The GEMS Ambassador Programme has been running successfully for more than a decade since its launch in 2008. In the past two years alone, the programme has helped parents earn back more than AED 650,000.

The programme is open to any GEMS Education parent and the process is straightforward: simply introduce a new family or friend to any participating GEMS school and earn back a minimum of 4% and up to 100% of your child's annual tuition fee in the form of GEMS Points. These Points can then be used to pay school fees (<https://www.gemswestminsterschool-rak.com/why-gems/ambassador-programme/>)

We very much look forward to welcoming you as a member of the GEMS Ambassador Programme and thank you for your participation.

Kind Regards
